3.						Memo of Deputy Comptroller dated 17 June 1954 analyzes situation most clearly. It appears that keeping goods in storage was a voluntary act of employee which had incidental effect of saving government money. If there had been prior determination of advantage to Gov't and direction to employee to keep goods in storage the equities would be stronger although legal position still difficult. Argument of "operational necessity" is very weak! /s/ 25X1A9a [REDACTED]
